***SketchUp***. The 3D modeling program mentioned earlier in this chapter can also be used to make diagrams and maps. A full-blown version of SketchUp (not to be confused with 3D Studio Max) is included with the Windows operating system. # Photoshop Elements vs. Photoshop When discussing Photoshop, this book refers to _Photoshop Elements_ (often abbreviated as _Elements_). Elements is part of Adobe's CS6 product line, which also includes Acrobat Pro and Flash Professional. Eighty percent of Photoshop is common to both versions, although some features, such as adjustment layers and Liquify tools, are only available in Photoshop CS6. Photoshop Elements also includes some special effects. Photoshop is the full-featured version of Photoshop Elements. The tools are basically the same, but Photoshop is easy to use. Elements is a great tool that doesn't try to be a photo editor. Its focus is to provide basic image manipulation and basic photo editing tasks. Photoshop's tablet interface has become a standard, but in Elements, you use the keyboard and menus for most tasks. Photoshop CS6 does have a touch interface, but it is limited to rotating and resizing layers. ## Graphic Design Software Two more programs covered in this chapter are Adobe Illustrator and InDesign.

AdvertisementEvents CLUE Schola Forum - Archdiocesan Lectionary 2 June 18, 2013 | 10:00am - 10:30am Schola Forum 1322 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago Come celebrate the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul and the Lectionary of the Month, June, with us at the Schola. We will hear Dr. Keith Brateman's Answering the Call to Serve: The Apostle Paul and the Roman and Early Christian Polis read by Rev. Dr. Frederic Davey, Archdiocesan Director of Vocations. In his introductory remarks, Dr. Brateman will acknowledge the connection of the Apostles to the Christian Church and to the wider world. Our reflections for June will begin at 10:15, and the address will be at 10:30. This presentation is in the Basilica, in the Newman Room, 1300 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Room 30. Church Day July 2, 2013 | 12:00pm - 12:30pm Church 1946 W. Fullerton Ave, Chicago Father Doherty will be making a follow-up visit to the parish to discuss the upcoming Church Day celebration on July 2. There will be a 5k race run around their six-acre park-like grounds and a 10k run from their nearby club house. There will be free entertainment, food vendors, and a fair with parish ministries, entertainment, and children's activities. No need to RSVP; just come to the church and make your way to the stage. Church Day is an annual reunion of the parish community to celebrate and pray for the founding and guiding principles of the church, namely: Love God, love each other, and serve others. The day begins in the church with the church liturgy, and all are welcome and encouraged to join in celebration. That evening there will be a free concert by the Osmond Brothers, the Wild Cats, The Federal Van Halen, and the Return of the Rebels, featuring the Desperate Straights, Brian Jones and his Blues Mobile Band. On Sunday, July 3, the parish will host its second annual Church Day picnic in our beautiful Christian Country Club. A raffle, church tours, old-fashioned games for the kids, free food, and a fishing tournament will be held. a681f4349e all the original "type" is relevant, and is the focus, if we're talking about identifying a particular type of shop... or at least a very clear set of expectations for what that shop is like. The stereotypes go both ways. In truth, they do. In my experience, the positive stereotypes are far more common than the negative ones. And what about the successful small businesses? Don't all small businesses work towards their goals at some point? Yes. So, if you're successful, what would be an example of a negative stereotype? Well, just something that's not true. That's not a successful small business! Successful small businesses are brilliant at marketing. They can't tell you how and why their business is successful. What they can do is show you the results. Unlike big business, successful small business owners are quite happy to explain what works for them. How they make money. How they grow their business. How they reach their customers. And... How to do the same, so that you can see how they do it. How to do it. That's where the positive stereotypes come in, more than any other place. A successful small business owner is an inspiration to you. But he/she isn't the only one. Remember, the future of small business is happy. You don't have to be happy. But you can take part in it. And the most effective way of doing that, is by learning from those that are already doing it. How? By investing in, and joining in with, what they're already doing. The profiles, the videos, the surveys... They're all there for a reason. They're all there to get the small businesses of the future, started. So, where's the problem with the stereotype? The problem is the same one that the big business has always had. When you look at someone else's business, what are they like? What does their business look like? And what are they like? Well, with those big business people who
