The Holy Qur'an is an excellent source of guidance as it teaches us to lead our lives in accordance with the directions of Allah. The moral or spiritual side of the Holy Qur'an consists of two principles: 1) "Spirit" and 2) "Things". Spirituality is the main component of the Holy Quran, its significance lies in the fact that it affects all aspects of human life, both spiritually and physically. It provides answers to the most pressing questions and helps us understand how to live so that our existence is useful for everyone. The word Spirituality, which we often use to describe God, can mean "mental, moral, spiritual guidance." Such an approach to life is certainly justified and does not contradict the Holy Quran, but like all other aspects of Islam, Spirituality is definitely and absolutely unique. You cannot change what was created by Allah Almighty. As already noted, he created the twelve heavens and the earth, and also directs it with the help of angels. However, He did not create a single thing, but only bestows them and at the same time manages them. Therefore, people have a choice: to serve the Almighty, fulfilling His commands, or not. However, if someone does not want to do His will and understand His instructions, this is his own business, but it is best to strive for perfection, and not change his essence for the sake of pride. What the Almighty created by His will, He protects and protects. People must submit to this will, and His path is the only path that Muslims follow. In that case, they will follow the straight path and their life will be happy. He, God, is interested in the well-being of people, since He is the source of goodness and light. Its purpose is joy for all creatures. He endowed the people He created with free will. A person should act according to his own desires and preferences, but not for himself, but for the sake of others. The followers of Islam should first of all remember how pious prophets, angels, righteous people, messengers and Allah himself addressed the believers. They need to understand their behavior and what questions they put before them. For example, when the Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) spoke to the believers about their obligations to Allah and people, he mentioned three categories that they should fulfill: 1. Act according to the dictates of their religion. 2. Act
