Manage your cryptocurrency portfolio with Citadium Coin Price Tracker, a powerful and reliable financial application that combines the functions of a stock market tracker and an exchange browser. •Highlights:• Citadium Coin Price Tracker - stock market tracker * Advanced Chart view* Advanced Quotes view Suggestions for future versions "Incorporate Date/Time graphs into the chart" Other than simply not having this feature built in, it may be a little more difficult to find a graph for the current date, time, or the date/time. Having the ability to graph out the date/time would be helpful, and no one seems to be using this feature. This could be done easily by just graphing out the current time and date in addition to all of the other graphs that already exist. The ability to grap out just the date/time would be a major improvement to this application. "Add graphs for the current date/time, current year, all years, etc. Adding graphs for the current date/time, current year, all years, etc. would be a great addition. Right now, its hard to tell what's going on in the markets when the graphs are only for the last 7 days. "Add support for multiple date ranges" Adding support for multiple date ranges would be another major improvement. If you were looking at the stocks of a company or something, you would want to be able to graph out the data based on the time period that you want to analyze. "Update to a newer version of chrome/FF" This is a good suggestion. The current version of this application does not seem to work on newer versions of Firefox or Google Chrome. After some heavy research, I determined that the application does not seem to function on the most recent versions of Firefox or Chrome. However, I still do not know why this application does not work on these versions. "Add the ability to look at all symbols" Add the ability to look at all symbols. There are so many symbols and they are so wide spread across a variety of companies. Adding the ability to look at a large number of symbols would greatly enhance this application. "Rearrange the alphabet" This is a great suggestion. Rearranging the alphabet would be a great improvement. This would make it much easier to read all of the symbols. "Add support for multiple symbols" Adding support for multiple symbols would be another major
