You should only use unused styles if your tool uses a style, and you then want to apply that style to more than one canvas. Use the style tool to create a style as you would normally. You can use one of the predefined styles, and you can add styles to your own style file. After using the style tool, just save the file and it will appear in the Templates dialog. Renaming and removing unused styles You can rename or delete unused styles in your theme. When you first create a style, it goes into the "unused styles" list. If you then save the style, it will not appear in this list. If you look at the list of unused styles in the Templates dialog, you can move the unused styles into the "used styles" list. The unused styles will then also reappear in the list of unused styles. If you then save the style, it will appear in the list of used styles.Foto: Facebook "Smit je križanjem skrećio u
