Flash cookies can be a bit of a hassle to remove, but FlashCookieMonster makes sure that you can have back your privacy when you want it! No more surprises when you next visit a website! FlashCookieMonster can automatically delete all flash cookies for you on Windows, Linux and Mac OS X. Most browsers will give you an option to clear your cookies when you want to, and if not you can always manually delete them. Many web developers prefer to use flash cookies over regular cookies because they can then customize your online experience for you, often giving you more functionality on their site. Although Flash cookies are not that secure, we felt that they should always be removed instead of storing them on your computer.

FlashCookieMonster is safe and your privacy is guaranteed! FlashCookieMonster Features: * Automatic delete: FlashCookieMonster will automatically delete all flash cookies for you on all supported platforms. *

Lightweight: Supports browsers that don't have a native cookie cleaner (such as Internet Explorer) * Modular: Select cookies to delete using drop downs * Fast: For fast and easy use of FlashCookieMonster on your browser * Secure: Flash cookies are not secure so they must be removed * Customizable: choose the cookies you want to remove using a big listGeorge Groves doesn't just want to be champion of the amateur game, he also intends to bring a little glamour back to the British amateur scene. The 27-year-old is the current billiards champion of the UK, but was yesterday at Wembley Arena explaining that he hopes to add the world billiards title to his handful of national titles and reach the final of the UK Open. The former WBC super-middleweight champion is too busy to be a full-time billiards player and will be in London to prepare for his World Title challenge against Frenchman Cedric Gallo at the European Snooker Championships in Croatia this week. But he already has a few dates lined up to promote his new-found interest in the sport.My only defense for the code is that it was distributed for the IPC's internal use within our company. Both the code and the project it was under the company umbrella were closed as a result of an arrangement among the executives with former leadership. Hopefully, nothing will come out of this that will jeopardize our position within the IPC. The question you have to ask yourself is why would they give
