My friend Angie had mentioned she was looking at the NPS queue. I didn't know how big it was but it was a lot bigger than I thought. So I called her up because I wanted to see just how many people were there. It took her over an hour and a half to get in to see me (but I did get her in!). She said it was completely packed. I only spent about 5 or so minutes with her in there. She said there was a long line to the bathrooms and lots of leg hanging over the chairs! It was so funny...and then she asked why I was wearing a dress! I was actually wearing jeans, black flats and a dress that I picked up the weekend before at Walgreens. I was calling it a dress because it's a tank-type top that barely has anything on it. I got it for a deal, $11.99, and even at that price it was much more than a tank top! Anyways, she said there was another man in there wearing a tank top too. I could totally imagine it! I'm sure it would be so uncomfortable to be sitting in the seats for hours! I wonder if there was an intermission or a sound break? I wish I had taken a video of her and the man. Hmm...we could probably make a good movie, I guess. Then, before I had to leave, Angie told me to have a great time and asked me if she'd be able to come visit me later that day. I told her that I couldn't guarantee that but I'd definitely let her know if it happened! Then I went to the bathroom. I ended up using the "facilities" one too many times...it was crowded but I'm feeling a little bit better about myself now. I mean,
