What is new in version 1.3.20.0: V1.3.20.0 Marvelous Designer 3 Enterprise
1.3.20.0. Available for windows and linux. About us.It's not exactly going to be splintering into many millions of directions, though. You're looking at a few pennies at most per month, and you'll rarely see any more than one suggestion/comment per month that you're actually doing something wrong. The minor moderation will be handled by mods, with the most important thing to us being that we keep the site on-topic and the site clean. Every now and then, we'll take a look at the polls every month or so, depending on what seems appropriate at the time, and see if there are any indications that things aren't working the way we hoped. The nice thing about the way you suggested it, though, is that if you're getting overwhelmed, you can just post a meta thread, and then leave it for 30 days, then we'll see if we want to go with the ideas you posted. If you're afraid of growing too fast, we'll see about picking out one idea for you to implement, and then, we'll see how it goes. You can come back to meta every month until we decide to implement that idea, and we can continue if it's working well. The worst thing that can happen is that we find out something that we didn't anticipate and want to try out, so we can always just pick an idea that we like a lot, but no one else does. There is a lot of potential here, and if you want to take it over, I'd be thrilled if you would.
