- Juggles a few more score events.
- Best Practices are a few no-brainer tweaks. For example, we've got you covered if you play in a big stadium: make sure you have a covered upper deck. You probably want to make sure you have some regular corners and a goal mouth.
- Fires up that Champions League dynamic system.
- Sets the stage for more to come. Including: Passing Vision; giving you a certain view if you kick the ball behind someone when you are about to go for a pass; a take-charge function; penalty area weighting; screen angle options for better control and comfort; a global caution for not having possession; and more.
- Players running from position to position has been introduced, as well as Player Positions and Player Zones.
- Many gameplay improvements.
- New Smart Player Trajectories bring an advanced version of heading to your feet making it easier to unlock that next level of full-on performance.
- New Defending Dash Move. With it, holding forward or sliding then pressing the R2 will get you in a saving move, just like in a real match. That cool biting motion you may have seen your teammates do or the one time Alves got away clean from Marko Krasnić are now doable.
- New Dynamic Acceleration. What if you're really pressing then make that turning angle sharper and increase your acceleration in a faster, more satisfying reaction. Give out that fast quick space and see your opponent off-balance.
- Enables you to get the ball of the turf and be able to instantly kick or pass. Build up the speed by pressing the square button and then finishing towards the net, giving you options on where to score or pass. Want to pass on the weak side of the penalty area so your teammate can score? You can now pass away from the goal with the sideways slide motion control while maintaining quick direction.
- New assignment of a role to any player
