Download ZIP

Magia X is inspired by the classic puzzle game Tetris. But instead of falling blocks of pixels, players try to manipulate spheres known as kaplans to move them into place to capture mini-mechanical monsters and score points. Adventure Time is an indie fantasy adventure platform game with a colorful art style. The game is a mix of puzzle platform, action-RPG and management sim, with a bit of a JRPG twist. Your goal is to explore the world, find the four elemental spirits and defeat their masters in order to make your own choices that affect the world and your character. The game begins in the unlikely town of Tajunga, where a little girl named Kevin was abandoned by her parents. She was found by a mysterious old hermit named Shen Lee who took her in. The town itself is a typical fantasy and story-driven location, but it's also just as imaginative and fun to explore. You're free to wander around the towns, and map your every move. You'll follow clues and talk to the people to solve puzzles and make your way through the game. Your journey will be aided by the mystical elements of the world, and the source of these elements are the elemental spirits. They are separated into four elements: fire, water, earth and air. These spirits are the guardians of each of the elemental spirits Kevin has been able to reach and befriend. As Kevin grows stronger and collects the spirits, more and more of the town will open to her. Roughly around the halfway point, you'll join forces with Thane, an ancient dragon disguised as a man, to fight the evil forces of the dark forces. You'll uncover the secrets of what has happened to the world over time and follow the plot to the end of the game. The number one rule of the animal kingdom is: "Live or die, eat or be eaten!" And as far as the third rule goes, I'm not really going to get into that today, but I will say that if the animal kingdom didn't know about death it wouldn't have much to talk about. So, let's do a rundown of the animal kingdom and see what makes these animals 'special.' [note: All of these animals are considered as vertebrates, however, there are also invertebrates or things that won't reproduce, yet are still animals. It is possible that this class of animal could be in the future, it's just not really necessary to put things into more than one class. This is just something I did for my own purposes] 1) Vertebrates: a) backbone; b) characteristically bony parts like teeth and large bones; c) webbed feet; d) ears. 1) Invertebrates: a) lacking a backbone; b) characteristically not having any bony parts; c) no webbed feet; d) no ears. 1) Egg-laying: a) to lay eggs; b) there are some things that lay eggs, but aren't egg-layers; c) to hatch (usually) eggs. ! & Catarina, Hallow Queen 131 Year after the Naga treachery, the world is still reeling from the devastation that was Azure City. The empire spent many years trying to recover; destroying relics left behind by the dragon worshipers. But with the rise of new powers, the empire was being dragged down. Now, serving as the Emperor's seat of power, Noggenfogger City bears witness to the growing caste system. You either find an advantage in Noggenfogger City, or you become a slave. Outside, the masses of the enslaved march like cattle. Brave warriors of the empire strut about in ornate armor, ready to fight for their nobility. Princes and kings chortle nervously as they stand against the brutality wrought by the Emperor. Creatures like the Efreet descend from the forests to watch in glorious ignorance as their emperor takes personal satisfaction in torturing his adversaries. And the terrified populace melt into the shadows, waiting to be next. In the outskirts of Noggenfogger City, a young servant girl named Catarina feels trapped. She stands alone in the melée outside Efreet Castle as the innocent people are forced to watch as the youth are subjected to torture and mutilation. On the other side of the city walls, a young man is spotted near a secluded alley where he meets a lone female sage. After a few minutes, the man stumbles away suddenly, refusing to speak of what occurred. The female sage screams out upon seeing the man vanish. She holds her head, shaking in anger, as she

As she enters a small room with rough wood walls, she notices a strange door, a familiar type to her. Catarina goes to the door and presses her hand against it. After a minute of waiting, the door opens to reveal two creatures. The first is a large, alluring woman, an elegant woman in a gown of red silk, with shining brown eyes that seem to ensnare a man. The second is an Efreet, a hideous creature covered in blisters and welts. Both are very dangerous creatures and Catarina's hand shakes slightly as she senses the danger they pose to her.
