Image copyright Getty Images Image caption Jeremy Corbyn has said that the Welsh language should be protected Plaid Cymru is seeking to provide Welsh language support to Labour MPs, Jeremy Corbyn's party has said. Welsh language groups in north Wales had been in contact with Plaid Cymru MPs, the Labour leader said. Labour said the language should be protected in schools, hospitals, courts and law enforcement agencies. "We're supportive of what Welsh language organisations do," Mr Corbyn said. The UK's Welsh Government has said all of its key policies are shared by Plaid Cymru, as it has been the party's de facto devolved administration for years. The Wales Office currently provides support for the language in Welsh-speaking communities, and co-funded the Welsh Language Panel - an expert independent body set up to advise the UK government on the language. Plaid Cymru's Senedd leader Elfyn Llwyd said his party had been in talks with Labour about the possibility of Welsh language support for MPs.
