The game revolves around a young boy named Niko who loves to escape into the world of video games where he can be himself. This game combines funny storylines with exciting gameplay for a completely new experience. This is very humorous and has a great storyline. Parrot and IMC model point clouds are used to reduce loading time and increase performance. In the body of the game, you will experience the relationship and eye contact between Niko and his mother. Models in the game can be used with the VR Model Viewer, allowing you to view the mesh of any model in VR.

Key Features.

Birds On Your Deck is a fun time management game with zen puzzles. In it you become the owner of a pleasant little cabin, where you have a lot of birds. You need to feed them, and clean the bird house. On the deck, there are also the dishes and an island with a lighthouse. In addition, there are potatoes that work as a replacement of a gas pump. At the end of each day you can earn money for feeding the birds, which you can use to buy new dishes and furniture. It is a game where you help the birds fly to their beautiful nests. No, they don't fly, you simply guide them using the mouse. The graphics are simple, however, the player does not have any time to lose.

What Is New In This Version.

Added rich HD textures, colors, and models. The player can make their rooms more beautiful. Improved time management system. Enhanced AI and player's abilities. Added a new game mode. More than 100 levels with dynamic tasks and mathematical puzzles. Added multiplayer mode. Minor bugs fixed.

I've found a really old version of this engine there.
Purchased the full version and unlocked all the editor options. I've also found an underground repository with a cracked version. 6d1f23a050
