When you find one of these annoying episodes of randomness, the best thing is to just put it in the trash and turn it off. Here's my review of this game in question. I never played any games from that series prior to this one. I read about half way through the game to get a general idea of what it was about and was surprised at how it plays. It obviously set a standard I never thought I would ever be able to live up to. I've played dozens of zombie games since then and this still sets the bar very high.
