The UpdateStar program database is maintained by users for users. With your support, you can help all other users save their software settings. In the Help menu, you can find many upgrade guides, both in English and in other languages. To help you, I created a service called "Update your computer, update your software!" (Update Your Computer, update Your Software!) so you can find it at <http://www.UpdateStar.com>. Interested users can email me at Michael@UpdateStar.com. To access the UpdateStar program database, visit <http://www.UpdateStar>.
