Activate the software that you downloaded. Use the following steps: Insert the Activation Code For Software: when the TurboFloorPlan software comes up, just open it. You will see a screen where there is a serial number in the bottom left corner. Type the correct serial number in the box (without the hyphens) and then click the Activate button. Select Install Software: Click on the Install button. This will take you to the installation page where you can select the USB or DVD. You can also select to install the software on your local or network drive. Confirm Installation: Click on the Finish button to confirm. Greetings! The process described here can take 2-5 minutes. TurboFloorPlan software can be downloaded from several sources (we are developing an Android app for the future, so it will be easy to download the software, and this will not require USB keys). Try to activate the software if it is still on the screen. In the TurboFloorPlan software, you can activate the software by typing the serial number. You will see a message next to the serial number indicating that TurboFloorPlan can be activated and a login screen with your Email Address. Your Email Address is listed on the order confirmation e-mail. If you have not received the e-mail, please check your spam folder. If you have not entered your email address, activate the program using the Serial Number or Activation Code that you received with your TurboFloorPlan Download and follow the activation instructions.
