second, the muslim league was created as a political organisation that could be used by the british to divide the muslims of india and make an example of them for future separation. the division of india and the creation of pakistan were not the result of a long and arduous struggle for independence. the muslims were not fighting for democracy. they were not struggling for freedom. they were fighting for the right of an islamic state to govern them and their future generations. some of the leaders of the muslim league even thought that the creation of pakistan was an act of greed and wanted to stay united. but it was the majority of muslims who sought and wanted to be part of pakistan. all the political parties that were created after the partition of india were banned in pakistan. they continued their struggle with the sikhs, the hindus, and other minorities in india. the result was that they lost their claim to be called minorities. the sikhs were termed as sikhs, and the hindus were hindus. the most important lesson that all pakistani children need to learn is that pakistan was created for the promotion and propagation of religion. the first item on the agenda of the pakistan government was to implement the quranic laws that are to be followed by muslims as a whole. those laws include the maintenance of the shrines of saints and the symbols of islam, such as the use of beards, the hijab, and the namaz. the second item was to implement the laws that were made by the muslim league. thus, pakistan implemented the hudood (religious) code, the law of the shariat (sharia law), the majlis-e-shoora (law-making assembly), the quranic laws of inheritance, marriage, and divorce. 5ec8ef588b
