Clones Home PTY Ltd supports long term self support Clones Home Pty Ltd supports long term self support Clones Home PTY Ltd, a licensed manufacturer of orthoses, office furniture, bean bag chairs and scooters, has decided to support the Government's Education Package. The package is aimed to support people who require support with their activities of daily living. Clones Home PTY has a limited fabrication capacity and welcomes technicians to make their own furniture. Clones Home's accountant, Mandy Franchetti, said that this was a long term commitment and the company's three top management, Joe Carpinelli, Chris Tobin and Jessica Reid, wanted to take part. She said that there were a number of benefits for Clones Home in supporting the package and from a business perspective, a much safer investment. "When we first hear of the package we are relieved that the Government is willing to work with us for so long. We can create an injection mould system and make the contoured moulding part of an orthosis that people can use," said Ms Franchetti. "By doing this, we save the Government money and that is a great benefit to the business and then we can distribute this to people for no additional cost. We will need assistance from the community to get people to us and we will be happy to provide this. "If
